Dagens Industri 2010-06-05

One single room and ten double rooms (three of which are suites), each with its own individual colour scheme, textiles and décor. All our hotel rooms feature top quality Carpe Diem beds and a Crestron touch panel that allows guests to control everything from images and sound to heating and lighting. Each room offers its own view across – or close to – the heart of Uppsala, with its well-known buildings. The cultural quarter is home to the Carolina Rediviva Library, the Archbishop's Palace, the Holy Trinity Church, Uppsala Cathedral and Uppsala University.
